

DHS Deputy Accused Of Playing Favorites In EB5 Program By Allissa Wickham Law360, New York (March 24, 2015, 8:37 PM ET)

Angelo Paparelli of Seyfarth Shaw LLP told Law360 that he believes Mayorkas' character is "being unfairly impugned," and that, in his experience, Mayorkas is a man of "the highest integrity." Paparelli added that during his tenure at USCIS, Mayorkas made "significant strides in many, many different program areas." "When you make change, people who resist change in an organization will grouse," he said. "And unfortunately, because everything in immigration is politically charged, the grouseurs have the ear of Sen. Grassley, and now the ear of the OIG for DHS, and they're trying to make something where I believe nothing exists."
